

Product Audits Optimise Your Adhesive Performance

Safeguard consumer confidence in your baby care, period care, and adult incontinence products. Testing helps ensure your absorbent articles consistently deliver the quality performance you intend—and that your consumers rely on.

At Bostik, we're more than just adhesive experts. We're also absorbent hygiene professionals. We have an extensive line of reliable tests to measure the performance of every adhesive application in your finished product. Using the data gathered, our team will pinpoint potential issues and offer personalised solutions.

What: Adhesive performance testing of your finished products

Where: Our advanced testing facilities

Includes:

- Product evaluation for adhesive add-on and functional indicators such as creep, peel, shear, pad positioning, and more
- Expert interpretation of results to identify application and performance issues
- Solid recommendations to enable a dependable fix for any issues we find

Contact Bostik for availability and associated costs.
